RE'D HAVE STATE PROBLEMS DISCUSSED EACH YEAR

By Delegates From Every Quarter-Thinks Abuses Could Be Remedled if Power Were Granted-Federation Passes White Slave Resolution

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 .- Senator Root was the chief speaker at to-day's session of the National Civic Federation's conrence on uniform laws. He made a aggestion which if followed up would sault in the establishment of a new ody representing the States and supting the work of the State and ational Legislatures so as to bring the States into closer touch and harmony.

"It seems to me," Senator Root said, "that every State ought to appoint in such way as it sees fit delegates to an intertate conference to be held every year orized to enter into the consideration and discussion of these great interstate

He said that the authorization of such a enference and the agreement of the tates to hold it would require the connt of Congress if certain powers and unctions were conferred on the reprentatives of the States.

"I have hopes," he said. "that we are on the threshold of some effective legislation by afl of our States and a removal of many evils and abuses that undoubtedly exist because of the want of that aind of discussion and consideration and centration of public opinion on State

"It is apparent that there is a wide id of government activity which beongs to the States and which does not nder any kind of construction fall within powers of the national Government, t in which a great variety of most imortant legislation is necessary, affecting of alone the individual State which is egislating but affecting a great number of the sister States: and it is upon-that heory that we are now looking for greater making and enforcing." enator Root spoke of the good that had e out of conferences and called parar attention to conferences of the which had resulted in the establishent of an international postal union, lition of the slave trade, privateering and many other international agreements.

conference adopted this morning report filed by Seth Low, chairman of committee on resolutions, appointing mmittee to appear before the Governors of States who are in conference here present certain resolutions. One of was as follows

That the national conference on uniform laws indorses the note prepared by the comers on uniform laws and hopes that the States which have not already done so without delay enact these measures blaws: The negotiable instruments act, warehouse receipts act, the sales act

The committee was instructed to present to the Governors a resolution to the effect that legislation should be dopted "to suppress and prevent the procurement of women for immoral procurement of women for immoral purposes, known generally under the name of the 'white slave' traffic." The commissioners on uniform State laws were directed by the resolution to draft a bill to carry into effect the recommendation of the conference on the subject. The committee was directed also to recommend adoption by the States of pure food and drug legislation modelled along the lines of the national pure food and drug act.

oure food and drug legislation modelled along the lines of the national pure food and drug act.

Other resolutions presented to the Governors urged States which had made no appropriation for the work of the commissioners on uniform State laws to make them, and invited those States which had not already done so to appoint commissioners on laws. The report of the committee on resolutions was adopted unanimously as far as the vote went, but Edwin D. Page, representing the Merchants Association of New York, who is a member of the resolutions committee, read a dissenting paper which the offered in the place of a minority report.

One of Them Halted by Pistol Velley as He Was Running a way.

Three men charged with working a flimflam game upon saloonkeepers in North Hudson were arrested in West Hoboken last night. One of them attempted to get away and was recaptured after a chase in which five shots were fired after him.

The men said they were William Whittaker, 28 years old, of 240 East Twenty-second street; Albert Meyer, 28, of Exchange place, Jersey City, and

Mr. Gompers urged the adoption of English laws affecting miners. He said that America was behind the times in protecting workmen injured in their ployment. Mr. Mitchell said that America was the only country in the world that main-tains the old relationships as to master tains the old relationships as to master and servant, and that these were established long before there was a mine, factory or railroad in the United States.

Mr. Hammond, who represented the American Institute of Mining Engineers, advocated uniform laws providing for the safety of miners. He said that the recent disaster at the Cherry coal mine in Illinois has cost the public for relief upward of $300,000, in addition to which it is estimated that the coal company's expense will amount to more than will amount to more

ROOT FOR A NEW CONGRESS WANTS OHIO TO FAST 60 DAYS.

Legislator Offers Resolution That Citizens Abstain From Meat Two Months. COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 18.-A resolution calling upon the people of the State to abstain from meat for the next sixty days and to subsist entirely on a diet of vegetable nuts and fruit for that time was introduced into the House to-day by Representative Tidrick.

Chairman Williams of the High Price Committee was fairly swamped with mail from all parts of the State containing suggestions as to possible remedies for the situation, many of which were deemed worthy of consideration.

One of the most popular ideas in the rural districts seemed to be that the millers had abandoned the old custom of taking one-eighth of the grain as toll and were now asking twenty-two out of every sixty pounds of wheat as the toll for

of living by waste and extravagance in many households.

Senator Williams held a long conference with the Attorney-General this morning regarding the situation.

The Committee on High Prices held its first public meeting this afternoon, when the mass of correspondence was reviewed and a tentative plan of action outlined.

The resolution offered by Representative Tidrick caused quite a stir in the House and is not altogether regarded as a joke. The Ohio legislators are looking at the serious side of the situation, they say, and have laid out some weeks of hard work for themselves, after which they hope to have accomplished something toward relieving the general hardship.

One method of bringing relief was much discussed. This was the introduction by Representative Calvey of Cleveland of a resolution asking Congress to authorize the President to place any commodity on the free list when it is known to be controlled by a trust or combine. This, it is argued, would go a long way to preventing high prices, especially of food stuffs.

I want every one in Cleveland to join. We can win by cooperation."

The captain declared that on the night of January 8 the woman came to him with a cup of coffee which she thought contained poison. She said it was prepared by her husband. An analysis of it disclosed that it contained paris green and arsenic, according to the police.

In court Mrs. Colichio asserted that she bought the poison for household purposes. She said that on the morning of January 8 her husband aroused her from sleep and said coffee was ready. She declared that the coffee tasted good but that she did not like the color.

He was backed up by Public Service Commissioner Edward M. Bassett, who a month ago first ward M. Bassett, who a month ago first presented the proposition to the people, there. The meeting was at Schuetzen Park, Steinway.

Since Commissioner Bassett's last visit the civic organizations in Queens have been holding meetings and they have laid out two tentative routes which they will ask the Public Service Commission in the near future to approve. One of these routes is over the Williamsburg Bridge and through Maspeth and Elmhurst to Corona. Another is across the Queensboro Bridge, up Jackson avenue for a short distance and then to the Astoria section, with branches to North Beach short distance and then to the Astoria section, with branches to North Beach and Flushing. The taxpayers have figured out that property for half a mile on either side of these proposed lines would have to bear an assessment of from $80 to $80 a lot.

Mr. Murphy said that the Queens people should consider the proposed assessment for transit lines an investment instead of a tax. He was asked if it would be possible to make property in Manhattan along the trunk lines that met the branches into Queens bear part of the assessments and he said he believed the project would have to be carried through along the lines of PREVENTORIUM WAR GOES ON. Nathan Straus Gets an Injunction Against Removal of Children.

A meeting of the directors of the Lake wood Hotel Company was called last Thursday in Samuel Untermyer's office to Thursday in Samuel Untermyer's office to decide what should be done to get the forty children out of the Cleveland cottage at Lakewood, which Nathan Straus is using as a nucleus for a tuberculosis preventorium. Following the meeting Mr. Untermyer wrote a letter to Samuel Straus, representing Nathan Straus, notifying him that the hotel people would give him until yesterday to say what he would do in the way of cooperating with the hotel company in removing the children to some other place. If he did not see fit to cooperate with the company to the end the company would begin action to obtain the necessary authority to remove them itself.

The answer came yesterday when Clarence J. Shearn, counsel for Nathan Straus, obtained a temporary injunction from Supreme Court Justice Hendrick restraining Max Nathan, Alfred Nathan and the Lakewood Hotel Company from taking action to dispossess the preventorium. The order to show cause is returnable on January 21.

The application for the injunction con-

The application for the injunction contained an affidavit made by Sylvester Burns. for ten years Nathan Straus's secretary and who hat active control of the hotel. Mr. Burns said that the cottage, although the title was held by the Lakewood Hotel Company, had been recognized as the private property of Nathan Straus, who paid the expenses of its mainstenance out of his own pockst.

The hotel company will oppose the injunction on the ground that the New York courts have no jurisdiction. The company is a New Jersey concern and the real estate is in that State.
